The 27th IUBMB/FASBMB/SASBMB Congress 2027:
Registration and Abstract Submissions & YSP Applications Now Open

Registration, abstract submissions, and applications for the Young Scientist Programme (YSP) are now open for the upcoming 27th IUBMB/FASBMB/SASBMB Congress.

- Dates: September 19–23, 2027
- Venue: Cape Town, South Africa

This joint congress will bring together scientists from around the globe to celebrate advancements in the molecular life sciences. The YSP offers an exceptional opportunity for doctoral students and early-career researchers to learn from leading scientists, present their research, and build an international network.
